President's Relief Plan Before Senate

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27 —(UP) —President's Roosevelt's reforestation and unemployment relief plan was unanimously approved today by the Senate labor committee. As approved the President is authorized to proceed with the employment of approximately 250,000 men under rules and at rates of pay to be fixed by him. The bill now comes upon the Senate floor for action.

It is unoffically stated that it is the President's plan to recruit a great army of unemployed men to work at $1.00 a day and found in various kinds of public improvement, notably reforestation and reclamation work.

The wide powers granted the President in this regard are in line with the avowed purpose of Democratic leaders to give him comprehensive control of all agencies which may be used to combat the depression.

MORE LAND FOR IDAHO MARYLAND

Deeds recorded with the county recorder last week reveal the fact that the Idaho-Maryland Gold Mining Company has acquired additional mineral lands in the vicinity of the Maryland mine. The grantors are E. M. Taylor, Adelaide Taylor, Theodore C. Dorsey and Violette D. Howard.

The lands conveyed are Lots 5 and 6 of the Southeast quarter of Section 25. Township 16. North; Range 8 East, and the right to mine beneath the surface of a tract in Section 30, Township 16, North of Range 9, East.

The deed carries $18 in revenue stamps.

ALLEGHANY, BUSY MINING CAMP

Alleghany is a lively mining camp, according to John J. Connell of that community, who visited Nevada City Wednesday. He stated that progress is being made in the Oroflame Bonanza King in Alleghany. The tunnel is now in 700 feet.

About 90 men are employed in the Sixteen to One mine. In all the various properties there, approximately 125 men are at work.

CROSSCUT ADVANCED IN PHOENIX PARK MINE

G. R. Boggs has crosscut east from the 100 foot level of the vertical shaft in the Phoenix Park mine, or the old Riley Tract, near Grass Valley, to the north-south vein system.

Veins have been picked up in both the hanging and foot walls and Mr. Boggs is drifting south on the hanging wall side to a point where these two veins intersect. When the southern extremity of the vein has been reached he plans to add another 100 foot lift to the shaft and again crosscut to ore.

Boggs is manager for a group of San Francisco and Del Monte men, who became interested in the property and unwatered it.

WORK GOING AHEAD ON THE TWIN QUARTZ MINE

W. T. King dropped into the Nugget office today. He is working with a crew of four men on what is known as the "Twin Quartz" mine near Camptonville. The crew are now running a tunnel in and are within 70 feet of the main ledge. The prospects are very promising according to Mr. King and later on we will have some real news from this section.

Fred Searls of Newmont Company Here From N. Y.

Fred Searls, vice president and engineer of the Newmont Mining Corporation, arrived in Nevada City from New York yesterday afternoon.

CHANGED TRAIN TIME AFFECTS MAIL CLOSING

The Nevada County Narrow Gauge Railway schedule has been changed again. The train that formerly left Nevada City at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, now leaves at 3:45 p. m. The afternoon mail at the postoffice will close at 3:15 o'clock instead of 3:30.

The Downieville mail, and mail for all points between here and Downieville will leave Nevada City at 11 o'clock in the morning hereafter instead of 12:30 o'clock as in the past. The star route to Downieville, according to Postmaster Scadden, may be extended in the near future to Sierra City.

A CHANCE FOR BOYS TO VISIT OLD IRONSIDES

Complying with numerous requests the Nevada City Nugget is publishing the famous poem of Oliver Wendell Holmes . It was this stirring verse that passed around on hand bills in Washington, D. C., that aroused the country to save the veteran old ship from destruction and to have it repaired.

Old Ironsides comes to San Francisco Bay on April 1. The Nevada City Nugget is offering all boys in Nevada county an opportunity to visit this historical old ship. For each two new yearly subscriptions at $2.00 each, or each four half yearly subscriptions at $1.00 each, the Nugget will give a round trip ticket to Oakland.

Nevada City boys are up and coming. A score of them are out rustling subscriptions and some have already turned in their quota.

Here is Oliver Wendell Holme's eulogy on the gallant Old Ironsides:

Ay, tear her tattered ensign down!
Long has it waved on high,
And many an eye has danced to see
That banner in the sky;
Beneath it rang the battle-shout,
And burst the cannon's roar;—
The meteor of the ocean air
Shall sweep the clouds no more!

Her deck, once red with heroes' blood,
Where knelt the vanquished foe,
When winds were hurrying o'er the flood,
And waves were white below,
No more shall fel the victor's tread,
Or know the conquered knee;—
The harpies of the shore shall pluck
The eagle of the sea!

Oh, better that her shattered hulk
Should sink beneath the wave;
Her thunders shook the mighty deep,
And there should be her grave;
Nail to the mast her holy flag,
Set every threadbare sail,
And give her to the god of storms—
The lightning and the gale!

COUPLE FRIGHTENED BY FRISKY LIGHTNING

ANDERSON Mar. 27—(UP)—Plain, ordinary lightning is bad enough, but the capricious kind that skips and jumps all over the place is worse.

Witness the experience of Major and Mrs. J. M. Dixon the other day.

The lightning first split a limb of a tree near the Dixon home; jumped from the tree to the meter box on the side of the house, blowing all the fuses, jumped under the house and up through the pantry, splitering boards as it traveled, and around the side of the house, tearing paper from the walls and ceiling.

The "M" Cafe installed yesterday one of the latest "Norge" refrigerators to take care of their increased business. Mr. Dimmen invites the public to come in and look over his new equipment.

"My girl and I are on the outs." "Only a lovers' quarrel?"

BURGLAR GETS AWAY WITH SLOT MACHINE

burglar broke into Ernest Schreiber's cigar store and cafe last night and made off with a slot machine. Entrance was affected by twisting off the padlock on the front door. Once inside the burglar pried off the front and back of the heavy box in which the slot machines were locked at night. How much money was in the slot machine no one knows.

KEEP SWIM FUND BUILD POOL, IS MOTHER'S PLEA

The following letter is from a Nevada City mother, well known in club circles. She protests against the use of the swimming pool fund for any other use than that for which it was voted.

March 25, 1933
Editor Nevada City Nugget,
Nevada City, Calif.
Dear Sir:

Is it not to be regretted that a fund which the people voted towards an asset of the town must be diverted toward the upkeep of a municipal utility which has always been maintained by the town and without a doubt always would be if there were no such possible fund in sight?

How about the bonds of $5,000 voted for the water fund that may be available in 1935? This might be used to take care of a general overhauling when needed, and for the present why not put the price of a special election toward the cost of immediate repairs

LABOR CAMP MEN LEAVE FOR JOBS

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 27—(UP)—No more men will be taken in California state labor camps after April 1, according to the division of forestry.

Labor camp officials report that already the men in the camps are beginning to leave and that by the first of the month the turnover will be too heavy to permit continuation of this type of unemployment relief work.

The camps, it was announced, will be closed gradually as the men leave and it is expected all will be closed by April 30. At the present time 6,800 men are working in the camps througout the state.

EARTHQUAKE ECHOS FROM NOR. SAN JUAN

By MRS. F. M. HARRIS

NORTH SAN JUAN, March 27—Chief of Police Hodgkinson of Balboa and Newport Beach came to spend four days with Mr. Shafer at at the mine at Strawberry Flat on the Middle Yuba. He was called back on Saturday after the earthquake by a telegram from his wife. The damage to these two towns was not great compared to other places, but the stores were closed for a few days as the contents of the shelves had been shaken down and the grocery stores especially were in a mess. The new post office at Newport Beach had great cracks across the front.

The highway from Newport Beach to Huntington Beach, five miles, was much cracked and, in places, sunk a foot. All approaches to bridges had to be filled in

ROAD TO WASHINGTON CLEARED FOR TRAFFIC

According to Supervisor E. B. Dudley snow has been cleared into Washington and the road is now open. The work was completed through the co-operation of the second supervisorial district and Joe Lopez who loaned his road equipment for the work.

FATHER DEMANDS POOL BE BUILT AS CITY VOTED

The following letter is from a well known and long time resident of Nevada City. His letter is on file at this office. He believes the city council should proceed with the construction of the swimming pool voted eight years ago. His letter follows:

March 25, 1933
Editor Nevada City Nugget:
Nevada City, Calif.
Dear Editor:

When the ebonds for the swimming pool were voted, there were at least 180 vacant homes in this city, and not a mill wheel was turning or a single man on payroll.

Today things are different. There are close to 400 men on mine payrolls in the Nevada City district, with almost a certainty before snow flies next winter that this number will be increased to at least 700.

Eight years ago one third of the business houses on Broad Street were idle or empty. Today there is not a vacant business house on Broat street.

Today Nevada City is a prosperous city. Not oin 20 years has business looked better with a scarcity of homes for families to rent and live in.

It is time to make preparations to build the swimming pool voted 8 years ago. That is the wish of all progressive citizens ,and any fair-minded citizens who read the article by Miss Celio in the Nevada City Nugget of February 27, under the high school students' section known as "The Searchlight," can see how easily such a pool can be maintained. There are several citizens who will give from one to five dollars a month. To maintain the pool from three to three months and a half each year, would be easy.

If the high school grounds were the place chosen, a swimming pool and an auditorium would put the Nevada City high school on the map, and would be a great credit to Nevada City.

Citizens beautifying their own high school and bringing it up to date. Something they could look upon and be proud of.

Why this delay in putting the money voted for swimming pool into the purpose for which it was voted. It has twice been voted by the people.

Why is this swimming pool fund voted twice by the people still, a frozen asset, on which we continue to pay interest? These bonds have been sold and we continue to pay interest on them and derive no benefit from them. Shall this be kept up indefinitely?

The money is in the bank drawing 2 per cent interest while the people are paying 5½ per cent on the bonds.

If this money is not used for what it was intended, now, Nevada City bids fair never again to have an opportunity, with the cash in hand, to build a pool for its young folks.

It is a pity that some people who are getting older, and some who have never had a chick nor a child, never think that they were once young, and that the present younger generation likewise like to have an opportunity to go swimming in the old swimming pool like we used to do. But things are not as they used to be. Mining has polluted all the nearby streams consequently these places, are practically gone in so far as use by our young people goes.

As a father of a family, I may be old fashioned, but today the girls as well as the boys, love water sports.

I can't see how any mother or father can feel safe in permitting their daughters to go out to creeks and rivers, with boys, the boys taking one bank behind the bushes in which to change their clothes, and the girls the other bank and another clump of brush, to change theirs. This often happens, to my knowledge. I leave the result of this kind of promiscuity in bathing, to the immagination of those who read this.

(Signed) A NEVADA FATHER

P. S. Providing that after the 6th of April, restaurants and hotels in this city obtained license to sell non-intoxicating beer, from the city for $25 per quarter, or $100 per year, each, the income from that source should be enough to pay for the pool's maintainance wherever located.

THESE BOYS ARE NOW TENDERFOOT SCOUTS

The following boys, last Wednesday evening, were admitted to the Tenderfoot rank of Boy Scouts at the Court of Honor, over which Judge Raglan Tuttle presided. Their names are given here again for the reason that some of them were omitted in last Friday's account of the meeting:

DEATH CALLS BELOVED NURSE

Miss Dorothy O'Neill, Grass Valley nurse, widely known and greatly loved because of her devotion to her profession, passed away yesterday morning at 11:15 o'clock in the Jones Memorial hospital. Death followed illness caused by blood poisoning. Transfusion of blood, which Mrs. Lidyard, nurse and friend, voluntered, failed of its purpose.

Miss O'Neill came to Nevada County from St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, Minnesota. Her training was under the Mayo brothers, who have many patients in that hospital. She endeared herself to the many sick whom she nursed, and to physicians and nurses with whom she was associated.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by W. R. Jefford and Sons.

ROLPH IS ASKED TO AVENGE BLOODY NOSE

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 27—(UP)—Roy Crawford, aviator, has great faith in Governor Rolph.

Crawford reecived a bloody nose from somebody's fist and was taken to a hospital.

Indignatly he grabbed a telephone and called a friend:

"Hey Bill, somebody poked me in the nose," he complained. You call Governor Rolph and tell him to send out his personal squad to avenge this insult.

BILL PROPOSES TO FINGERPRINT EVERYBODY

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 27—(UP)—Fingerprinting of all persons in California and filing of the fingerprints with the state is planned under a bill to be introduced in the legislature by assemblyman Ford A. Chatters, Lindsay.

"The measure has a two-fold purpose," Chatters said. "It will bring before authorities prints of all criminals in California and furthermore it will be a positive means of identification for all persons."

LAVA CAP UNWATERING WILL SOON BE DONE

Arthur Hoge states that the water in the shaft of the Lava Cap has been lowered to the 400 foot level and that he expects to have the mine unwatered down to the bottom of the 600 foot shaft very shortly.

TOTAL RAINFALL FOR SEASON NOW 22.99 IN.

Saturday and Sunday night's rainfall added another .48 inches to the season's precipitation making the total for Nevada City 22.99 inches.

Joe Nelson of Washington, who left late in January for a visit with his father in Arkansas, returned Friday, spent the night in Nevada City, and went on to his home Saturday. He made the trip both ways by auto stage going the southern route by way of Los Angeles, Arizona, Texas, over what is called Route No. 80.

R. H. George of the National meat market in this city and Mrs. George are enjoying the pleasure of driving their new Studebaker commander sedan, 1933 model. Both Mr. and Mrs. George are ardent lovers of the "great out-of-doors" and plan to cover many of the great open spaces this summer.

PRIMROSE MINE WORKS 12 CREW

Allen C. Hearst, of Thompson Falls, Montana, has assumed his duties as superintendent of the Primrose Empire Mining Company's property, near Sierra City.

A crew of 12 or 14 men will be put to work at once sinking the original Primrose shaft an additional 200 feet, and to cross cut known ledges at that depth.

Hearst is taking up the duties of Earl J. Fry, who passed away at the mine December 29 of a heart attack.

The Primrose is one of the older properties of the district, with a good record of past production.

It was leased a couple of years ago and considerable work was done but lack of funds closed the property down.

PROBE ASKED FOR L. A. JERRY BUILT SCHOOL HOUSES

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 27—(UP)—In the wake of Southern California's earthquake, has come a general legislative demand for an investigation to determine why school buildings in the quake area assertedly collapsed like so many houses of cards.

Latest development is the demand of several Los Angeles assemblymen—voiced in a resolution—for a general inquiry. It would even call for interrogation of contractors and sub-contractors involved in construction of schools which, according to reports, crumbled so easily.

Another development was a bill conferring on the state wide supervisory power over school construction.

This power would be held by the division of architecture of the department of public works. Getting to the core of the bill's intent, the division would see to it that each school structure was erected according to specifications.

While no direct charges of graft in southern California school construction. He told of so-called have been hints of that nature. For example Rolland A. Vandegrift, director of finance, cited example after example of faulty school construction. H etold of so-called "strength columns" filled with loose brick and broken mortar, and how one floor was not "tied in" with the next.

Vandegrift said the death toll would have been in the thousands if the earthquake had occurred five hours earlier—in other words, if it had occured when schools were filled.

The sum of legislative conclusions on the subject is: 1. The state should step in and rigid regulations protect the various counties against dangerous school buildings; 2. The faulty school construction in southern California which was exposed by the quake should be thoughly investigated.

GEGAN MINE, CIOSED 39 YEARS, TO BE EXPLORED

Lee Hunt, grandson of Edwin Gegan, and Frank Butin, partner of Hunt, are preparing to reopen the Omega Quartz mine, known as the Gegan mine. Carl Trevitecker is the contractor in charge of clearing the ground and cleaning out the old shaft which has been closed for 39 years.

TRAP MARKSMEN TO GATHER HERE IN MAY

The Nevada City Skeet Club will again have the honor of staging the annual trap shoot of clubs in this part of the state. Marysville which had been assigned the event this year, resigned in favor of this city. The inter-club matches will be held May 28, 29 and 30 at the trap range on the cement road.

EGAN DID NOT HANG

The Hickman murder has been cited as a "hellish" and "fiendish" crime that was justly punished by hanging, which would not have been inflicted had the bill now before the legislature been a law at the time of the trial.

But the Egan crime, just as "hellish" and just as "fiendish," was punished by a gentle slap on the wrist in the form of the present life sentence which the contemplated law seeks to change. In seven years Egan will be eligible to parole and the pull that kept him from the gallows will get him out of San Quentin.

Young Templeton was a pretty young boy whom a sentimental jury refused to give the limit. His crime was one of the most "hellish" and most "fiendish" in recent years. He too will be eligible to parole in seven years.

It is because the present law hits only one out of three of the "hellish" and "fiendish" murderers with the extreme penalty that it is to be done away with.

If you are pretty and have a sentimental jury, it will not put you to death. If you have money and pull you will not be put to death. The death penalty is enforced only against the poor, the unattractive and those without friends. "No rich man is ever hanged in California," has been said by a district attorney. We need a penalty that will apply to all alike.

Life imprisonment without parole is feared more by the killers than any other penalty. It is a penalty that will be meted out by juries to all alike. Its proponents will never give up until it is a part of the law of California.—Sacramento Union.

THE EDITORIAL CIRCUIT RIDER

The recent nationwide banking holiday, despite its inconveniences, will prove a blessing for future American business, in the belief of many California editors.

One result of the holiday, they agree, was to clearly demonstrate that Americans are all in the same boat; that one part of the country cannot be safe and secure unless all of it is in like condition.

"It may be said, not unsympathetically," said the Chico Record, "that it is a good thing the financial crisis came when it did and was so devastating in its effects. The worse, the better, as long as the agony is not too long drawn out. The very severity of it demanded instant action and drastic reform. The country may thus get, in a month, improvement that otherwise might have taken many years. The groundwork is being laid now for early recovery, and for the steadiness and security which our American banking system has lacked hertofore."

Declaring swift and decisive action was essential, the Mail of Woodland adds:

"There had been a gradual lessening of confidence for some time, and this finally created a condition of panic. The lack of confidence was accelerated by the publication of the loans made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to banks of the country. Following this, the closing of the banks in Michigan brought about a spread of the panic until it had engulfed the whole nation."

But, with reopening of the banks "there was a feeling of optimism in the air," said the Napa Daily Register. "The spirit of constructive action, which has been coming in rapid waves from Washington seems to have been caught by the people generally. The mere prospect of immediate and harmonious action by the government to relieve the economic breakdown and provide against future repetitions of it has started an improvement in conditions, especially an improvement in the thinking of the American people."

"Those who looked for a little upset when the banks opened soon found that they had miscalculated," remarked the Lindsay Gazette. "The people merely went on with business as usual, glad, in fact, to make their deposits."

Pointing out the vital part played by the banking institutions in business was impressed on the public mind by the protracted holiday, the Redwood City Tribune comments:

"It is possible for an individual to do without banking connection, though that independent course has its points of inconvenience. But collectively the people cannot do without banks in our highly complex business affairs. Not only do the banks provide facilities that make for expeditious handling of the monetary details of business, but they are a basic factor in making business at all possible."

"Manwhile," concludes the Bakersfield Californian, "all of us are heartened by the knowledge that the administration purposes to submit a comprehensive program for the creation of a new banking system, and when the necessary laws have been enacted, when the interests of the smaller banks have ben safeguarded, when the speculative feature of banking has been removed, we shall be able to say that normal banking conditions once more exist. Much has been accomplished already under circumstances that were most distressing. Much more may be and will be accomplished under wise direction and along lines that will again give the people the banking facilities to which they are entitled."

SECURITY FIRST

A city may boast of its beauty
And laud its assets to the sky,
But Tragedy leers thru the portals,
When the ditches and pipe lines run dry.

When the pipe lines are rusted and broken,
And the city is menaced by flame,
Shall the fireman dash up to said pipe lines
And plug up the holes in the same?

A hose in the hands of a fireman
Is a competent tool, as we know;
But a pop gun would be just as useful
When the water refuses to flow.

A swimming pool? That would be nifty,
When we long for a plunge and a rub;
But if there's no swimming pool handy,
With water—remaineth the tub.

But if we've a swimming pool, brothers,
And no water comes down to the same,
The hole we have dug in the top soil,
Is a swimming pool only in name.

We may build in a coign of the mountains,
Or down in the warm, sunny plains,
But the very life blood of a city
Is the water which flows thru its mains.

CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN

Things I would like to experience again go through Tivoli in Copenhagen Denmark. The wax figure museum where the wax figure of a waiter looked so real that I went up to it and tried to engage to give a tip. I got the horse laugh from some smart alecks who tried the same thing with the same result.

Go up the Round tower with it's winding roadway clear to the top. On this roadway one of the Frederik kings of Denmark rode and looked out over the great city of Copenhagen. Both Frederik and the horse became famous throughout the kingdom for this difficult stunt.

Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg formerly of the University of Chicago and now the College of the Pacific has been known to the writer for nearly thirty years and if he can keep his health we will hear of another championship team on the Pacific coast.

Unless the anti-saloon league can get an injunction, this country will have legal beer again on April 7th and to those who enjoy their seidel of beer, that will be good news.

I hope wine will come back again for those who like wine. Then we will witness normal people drinking in the open and there will be no undermining of their health under prohibition.

MOTHER KILLS NINE CHILDREN

One of the saddest tradgedies ever enacted in Nevada County was brought to light the other day at Olympia Park. A mother of nine, who was demented or overcome by the depression, was caught in the act of killing her children. When confronted with authority she refused to talk.

She had given no indication of the impending tragedy and it was only by the clever detective work of Frank Thurston, that the mother was caught red handed. She hid from him for some time but finally came out to face the music. To the crime of killing the youngsters she had added cannibalism and had eaten every last one. But to relieve anxious minds we must now say that the mother was Peggy a silver fox, and no action will be taken to punish her. But she will be kept under surveilance henceforth.

"RESCUED" WOMAN PROVES TO BE DRESS DUMMY

LYNWOOD, Mar. 27—(UP)—Now that the situation has quited down, W. H. Collins, local building inspector, admits shepishly that this hero business isn't all it's cracked up to be.

Collins was passing a Long Beach dress shop when the first major earthquake occurred recently. He saw a gas fire in the shop and fearing a fire, he dashed in to turn off the blaze. On his way out, he stumbled over what appeared to be a woman's body. Picking it up he ran for the street.

The "body" was a dummy dress model, Collins admitted.
